RE: Chem-Nuclear Systems, LLC, Docket No. 200-366-A

Dear Mr. Walsh:

The Consumer Advocate reviewed the consensus statement report regarding the collaborative review of the Operations and Efficiency Plan for Chem-Nuclear Systems, LLC which was filed with the Commission pursuant to Order No. 2003-188. We believe that the information provided in the Plan is a reasonable representation of disposal site operations and that the Plan can be used as a baseline for establishing a method for determining allowable costs in future Commission proceedings. Therefore, the Consumer Advocate will not oppose the use of the Plan in future proceedings regarding allowable costs.

Sincerely,

Hana Pokorna-Williamson
